The National Security Law certificate allows students to develop indepth expertise in the increasingly important field of national security law. Taken together, the classes offer students the opportunity to accumulate a great deal of knowledge about international law (treaties; Geneva Conventions; United Nations policy; human rights law; laws of armed conflict) and national and homeland security law (Fourth Amendment issues; Posse Comitatus; legal institutions). The students will be able to articulate orally and in writing about the pressing legal issues domestically and internationally related to security issues.
